ONE WAY

(B.Fontana)

You look at me ... you look at me
Time has run out for you, I have to go ...
Tell me stories, tell me stories ...
Time has come for you to see that it ain't love ...

*One Way ...
Always one way ...
When you can't see that it's over...
Maybe love will come one way ...
Always one way ...
When you can't see that it's over ...
May love will come one way ...*

You try to break ... the silence
But time has come for you to see what you need
'Cause you can't feel ... anything
But time has come for you to feel love

*One Way ...
Always one way ...
When you can't see that it's over...
Maybe love will come one way ...
Always one way ...
When you can't see that it's over ...
May love will come one way ...*
