RUNWAYS

(B.Fontana)

Sorrow ... always in your heart
Follow ... the sign of the start
Shadow in your broken heart
Of a love which has been torn apart

*& Do you see the city lights, along the streets, it's a runway
Taking-off with the morning flight to the dream not far away*

*& Do you see the city lights, along the streets, it's a runway
Sailing away with the morning tide to the island without a name*

City ... Living in a dream city
Pity ... Don't need your love
Oh Baby ... Just take my hand ...
& Sorry ... On those dreams we stand ...

*& Do you see the city lights, along the streets, it's a runway
Taking-off with the morning flight to the dream not far away*

*& Do you see the city lights, along the streets, it's a runway
Sailing away with the morning tide to the island without a name*

Life's a runway
